Parties sending in accounts of social entertainments will please sign them, as The Sun will not publish communication sent in that are not signed.

HIS LITTLE BLUFF.

She was such a pretty girl
That I wondered why the churl
Didn't pay
More attention to the maid—
There he sat and nothing said
While the crowded Pullman sped
On its way.

I pronounced him king of clumps
To sit silent in the dumps
With a queen
Dainty, winsome, natty, neat,
Dancing, red, attractive, sweet,
There beside him on the seat
All serene.

But when they arose to go
Then I understood, you know,
In a trice

Why he had been such a bore;
For I saw upon the floor,
What I hadn't seen before—
Grains of rice.

Announcements.

Miss Ruth Well will entertain with a luncheon on Tuesday at her home on Jefferson street, in honor of Miss Henrietta Koger and her bridesmaids.

The Cotillion club will give a German on Tuesday evening at the Wallace Park dancing pavilion, in compliment to Miss Henrietta Koger and her guests: Miss May Phelps, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Anne Rhea, of Nashville, Tenn.; Miss Frances Harris, of Nashville, Tenn.; Miss Marie Scovell, of Jacksonville, Fla., and Miss Mabel Weeks, of Rome, Ga.

Mrs. Hal S. Corbett is the hostess of the Five Hundred club on Wednesday morning at her home on North Ninth street. It will be strictly a club affair.

Mr. G. H. Jackson, Mr. H. G. Spillane, Mr. H. C. Dewey, Mr. B. L. Mathis have issued invitations to a party-dance for Friday evening at the Wallace Park pavilion in honor of Miss Mabel Jackson, of Flint, Mich., the sister of Mr. Grover Jackson.

The Daughters of the American Revolution will not meet on Friday, June the first, the regular time, but has been indefinitely postponed until the return of the regent Mrs. H. S. Wells from Boston.

The Week Socially.

This might be fittingly termed Paducah's May Festival Week, several especially brilliant musical events rendering it noteworthy in this line of social features. Of other things there has been no lack either; in fact occasions have rather trodden on each other's heels, crowding both morning and afternoon of a day. There is much entertaining of the most informal sort already in evidence, especially in the way of small morning bridge-games, and these promise to be quite popular as the season advances, but they are rather on the quiet.

The coming week has already announced several elaborate affairs, and there will be much to keep society busy.

Hurrykane Hall.

Messrs. Grover Jackson, Harry Spillane, Ben L. Mathis, Henry Dewey, W. D. Deakin, Cade Davis and Earl Norton have taken one of the Brainerd Flats, on Washington street, and have established cozy bachelor apartments which have been dubbed "Hurrykane Hall." With housekeeper, chef and valet they are decidedly on "Easy street." Among most popular young men in city, they will soon make "Hurrykane Hall" a name to conjure with in a social way.

To Return to Virginia.

Mr. Algernon Coleman will close his Boys' Preparatory School on the 6th of June and will spend his vacation at his home in Virginia. It has occasioned genuine regret among both friends and acquaintances here that he will not return to Paducah for another year, but has accepted a chair in the Academy at Norfolk, Virginia. Mr. Coleman is a happy combination of the student and the man of the world, talented and charming socially, he has made a delightful impression on all who know him here.

House Party Series.

The House Party club will be entertained on Monday night by the Misses Rella and Frances Coleman at their home on West Jefferson street.

This club is the latest addition to Paducah's social life, and is one which promises a series of good times to its members, who are: Misses Lillie Mae Winstead, Rella Coleman, Frances Coleman, Blanche Hills, Sue Thompson and May Owen. Each member will entertain with an all-night party during the coming week, but the amusements feature will vary with the hostess.

The first meeting of the club was with Miss Lillie Mae Winstead, of Washington street, on Thursday night and Friday of this week. Cards was feature of evening and Miss Blanche Hills secured the prize.

Club Entertained in Arcadia.

Miss Mary B. Jennings is entertaining the Viola club most pleasantly this afternoon at her delightful home "Oaklawn" in Arcadia. A guessing contest is one of the features of pleasure.

As You Like It Club.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Boone entertained the As You Like It club on Friday evening at their home on South Sixth street. It was a very delightful occasion. Beside the club members the out-of-town guests present were Mrs. James H. Black, of Terre Haute, and Mrs. J. F. Kurtz of Pittsburgh.

Delightful Party.

Misses Eliza and Dixie Hale entertained a number of their friends with a pretty party on Friday evening from 8 to 12 o'clock at their home on Kentucky avenue. The house was effectively decorated with ferns, roses and carnations in a color scheme of pink and green, and the delightful refreshments carried out the same pretty color idea.

Dancing was one of the features of the evening's pleasure, but games were also popular. In the drawing contest the prize, a box of candy, was captured by Master Nelson Soule. About 80 guests enjoyed the delightful occasion.

Garden Party at The Pines.

Mrs. Joseph L. Friedman gave an attractive garden party on Thursday morning at "The Pines" in honor of her guest, Mrs. John C. Roth, of Chicago. Dainty tissue paper hats were made by the guests, and Mrs. John W. Keller captured the prize in the contest.

Bridge Whist was played later, and an elaborate luncheon was served after the game.

Mrs. Roth left for her home in Chicago on Thursday evening.

Pleasant Affair.

Mrs. Enoch Brown, of South Eleventh street, entertained very pleasantly on Wednesday afternoon in compliment to her mother, Mrs. Peterson, of Louisville. A strawberry color scheme was carried out in the luncheon and decorations.

Fulton-Paducah Wedding.

The Fulton Leader says: "Miss Sallie May Vincent, of near town, and Landon Arnold of Paducah, were married Thursday at the bride's home, five miles east of the city. The wedding came as a surprise to their many friends in this city. The bride is the pretty and accomplished daughter of Col. O. B. Vincent, one of the most prominent farmers in this community. Mr. Arnold is a tobaccoist of Paducah. He formerly lived in Fulton. The couple have gone to Paducah to reside."

Club Entertained.

The S. S. club was delightfully entertained last evening by the Misses Pieper, of Sixth and Trimble streets. A composition on "Thrilling Adventures" was cleverly rendered by Miss Miriam Pieper. Games and refreshments concluded the evening. Those present were: Misses Blanche Anderson, Ida Lee Stegar, Margie Pieper, Flossie Budd, Elizabeth Welmer, Marlan, Mildred and Nell Pieper, Nell Holmes and Katherine Tarrell.

Club Smoker.

The Paducah Chess, Checker and Whist club gave a smoker on Thursday evening at the club rooms on Broadway in celebration of its fifth anniversary. It was a happy social occasion and the rooms were pleasantly crowded during the evening.

The handsome club rooms were attractively decorated with plants and flowers and punch was served. There was music throughout the evening. Dr. J. Q. Taylor has been the president of the club since its organization and the club has had five most successful years.

At Fresco Musical.

A very delightful at fresco musical was given on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. M. K. Scott, on North Fourth street. The lawn was most attractively arranged with Japanese lanterns and the platform had an effective Japanese setting. Seats were arranged under the trees and five young ladies in Japanese costumes served punch during the evening. The musical program was delightfully featured by Mrs. Lelia Lewis, Mrs. James Wellie, Miss Mayme Dryfuss, Miss Ada Brazelton, Mr. Robert Scott, Mr. Harry Gilbert, Mr. R. D. MacMillen and the High School orchestra. Mrs. James Young, formerly Miss Flora May Clark, of Paducah, read very attractively, and "In Tokio" was sung in costume by Miss Mary Cave, Marjorie Loving and Claire St. John.

Enjoyable Lawn Party.

A pretty lawn party was given on Monday afternoon by little Miss Jane Adair Wright at her home on Kentucky avenue, in honor of her cousin, Miss Mildred Morgan, of Hillsboro, O. The time was enjoyably spent and delightful refreshments were served.

Complimentary to Mrs. Kurtz.

Mrs. Clifton Mills Budd's card party on Thursday afternoon was a pretty compliment to her guest, Mrs. J. F. Kurtz, Jr., of Pittsburgh. The house was charmingly decorated with palms, roses and sweet peas in a color-scheme of pink and green.

There were ten tables of guests and the tables were effective bits of color in pink and green. The first prize was won by Mrs. Milton G. Cope and the lone-hand prize by Miss Faith Langstaff. Mrs. M. A. Dunn, of Macon, Ga., received the guest prize.

The course-luncheon, served after the game, was an attractive emphasis of the pink and green motif.

Pretty Afternoon Reception.

Mrs. David Cady Wright's reception on Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock at her home on Kentucky avenue in compliment to her sister, Mrs. Daniel Morgan, of Hillsboro, O., was a charming affair. The May roses were used in profusion through out the attractive rooms, which were filled with guests during the hours. Assisting Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Morgan in receiving were Mrs. Muscoe Burnett, Mrs. Robert Hicks and Miss Frances Gould. In the dining-room, where delightful ices and cakes in a color-motif of pink were served, were Miss Elizabeth Kirkland, Miss Mary Wheeler, Miss Elizabeth Boswell, Miss Ellen Boswell, Miss Julia Dahney, Miss Dorothy Langstaff.

Mrs. Gregory's Wednesday Series.

Mrs. Oscar L. Gregory was hostess to the Five Hundred club and a few additional guests on Wednesday morning at her attractive country home Rustle Hall, Gregory Place. The club honor was won by Mrs. L. D. Wilcox and Mrs. Henry Thompson captured the visitors' prize. A pretty course-luncheon was served after the game.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Gregory entertained informally at euchre with Mrs. John C. Roth, of Chicago, as the guest of honor. The first prize was won by Mrs. May Blossom Riecke and the booby prize by Mrs. James Clements. Delightful refreshments were attractively served during the afternoon.

Entre Nous Club.

The Entre Nous club was very delightfully entertained on Wednesday afternoon by Miss Sue Thompson at her home on West Broadway. The tables for cards were attractively arranged on the veranda and the game was played out-doors. Miss Frances Coleman won the club prize and Miss Mary K. Sowell the lone-hand prize. At the close of the game a pretty luncheon was served in the house at a set table.

In addition to the club members there were present: Miss Mary K. Sowell, Miss Caroline Sowell, Miss Eloise Bradshaw and Miss Elizabeth Kirkland.

Pleasant Birthday Party.

Miss Daisy Thomas, at her home, 1503 North Twelfth street, entertained a number of her friends on Monday evening in celebration of her eighteenth birthday. Games and music were features of the evening and delightful refreshments were served. Miss Thomas was the recipient of a number of pretty gifts in honor of the occasion. Present were: Miss Angie Ray, Lula Pryor, Lula Rolfe, Lillie Rolfe, Willie Rolfe, Zedie Pierceson, Maudie Pierce son, Sallie Thomas, Daisy Thomas; Mesdames Sarah Matlock, Zula Wilkinson, Otis Thomas, Snell; Messrs. Patton, Carlos Gillum, Scott Murphy, Lynn Martin, Thomas Peppers, Cal Ross, M. C. Thomas; Masters Hafford and Harvey Thomas.

Matinee Musical Club.

The Matinee Musical club held its final meeting for the season on Wednesday afternoon at the club quarters in the Eagles' Home, on Broadway. It was an especially delightful occasion and to mark its close was an invitation affair with a number of guests present and the spacious parlors were crowded. Mrs. William C. Gray was the leader and an elaborate miscellaneous program was rendered. Miss Virginia Newell gave a delightful little talk on "The Possibilities of the Matinee Musical Club." Those appearing in piano and vocal numbers were: Miss Newell, Mrs. W. C. Scofield, Miss Mayme Dryfuss, Miss Mabel Shelton, Miss Ethel Brooks, Mrs. George B. Hart, Miss Adah Brazelton, Mr. Harry Gilbert, Mr. Emmett Bagby and Mr. Richard Scott. Mr. Harry Gilbert's Schumann concerto, arranged during his stay in Berlin, was an especial feature of pleasure.

The club adjourned to meet again in October. Since its organization, last January, it has been a series of successes, and as a recognized factor in Paducah's uplift in a musical way it stands foremost. Perhaps the great secret of its success has been that it was more interested in doing for others than in helping itself and so has prevailed wonderfully.

Crescendo Club Recital.

The invitation recital of the Crescendo club on Tuesday evening at 622 Broadway in the Empire Flats, was a very delightful event of the week. The club is composed of the pupils of Miss Virginia Newell, and a most attractive program was rendered, 8-hand work being a principal feature. A concert hall in miniature was effected by the clever arrangement of the room, and the musical idea was emphasized by pictures and busts of noted composers. Palms and roses were used in the decoration.

The honors for the year's work was won by Miss Caroline Ham, with Miss Edna Eades a close second. Miss Ham received a pretty gold pin.

Pleasant Evening.

Miss Sue Garvey, of the South Side, delightfully entertained a few friends on Tuesday evening with "a railroad excursion," an interesting and novel game. The head prize, a handsomely bound book, was captured by Mr. Earl Griffith, and the booby prize went to Miss Minerva Glass in a cut. Music by Misses May Belle Bradshaw and Elizabeth Yopp, and games were other features of pleasure. Broken hearts were matched in pairing for luncheon. The hostess was assisted in receiving by her sisters, Mesdames Della Pitman and E. B. Sanders, and the house was prettily decorated with palms and cut flowers. The guests were: Misses Bertie and Minerva Glass, Flora Tyree, May Belle Bradshaw, Maggie Hartman and Elizabeth Yopp; Messrs. Al E. Prope and Joe Utzinger, of Elmira, N. Y., and Earl Griffith, Carl Timendorf, Ed Garrett, Louis Cole, Perry E. Garvey and E. B. Sanders.

Paducah's College Contingent.

The next few weeks now will be marked by the home-coming of the college contingent, always a popular part of Paducah society and an important factor in her summer gayety. Some of these will graduate from their schools and will be among the winter debutantes.

Miss Philippa Hughes will finish at the Gardner school of Fifth Avenue, New York, the coming week but will not return home until early in June. Her cousin Miss Ethel Morrow, who is now visiting her aunt, Mrs. Dixon Watts, in New York, will not return with Miss Hughes but will spend the summer there. Miss Hughes has been from Paducah since her graduation here in 1904, attending schools in Washington City and in New York. She is especially charming and talented.

Miss Marjorie Scott will graduate from Monticello Seminary, Godfrey, Ill., with high honors, and will be home June 13. She is of a striking personality. Miss Katherine Powell another popular Paducah girl at Monticello will, also, be at home in June.

Miss Frances Wallace is coming from the Florence school in Washington about June 15 and Mr. Robert Wallace will arrive from Princeton, N. J., about the same time. They will make "Elkville," the Wallace country home, a center of gay life.

Miss Elizabeth Atkins who is attending school in Washington, D. C., will be at home the coming week. She is the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Atkins of "White
